

440 Huntingdon Tier Road Bagdad TAS

5 2 9

This impressive and imposing 2014 build literally takes your breath away upon entry. Both nestled and proudly elevated on 8.98 acres of envious land located just 5.6km from the Midland Highway. Bagdad is the in demand suburb and this home is the substance dreams are made of.

The grand entrance is just the start of this property journey. The ceilings are high and the walk ways are wide; perfect to show off a collection of treasured pieces.

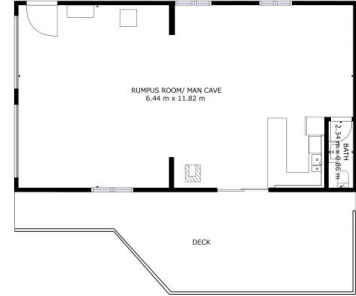

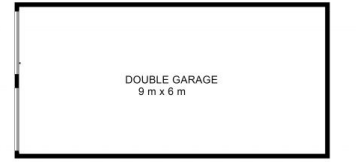

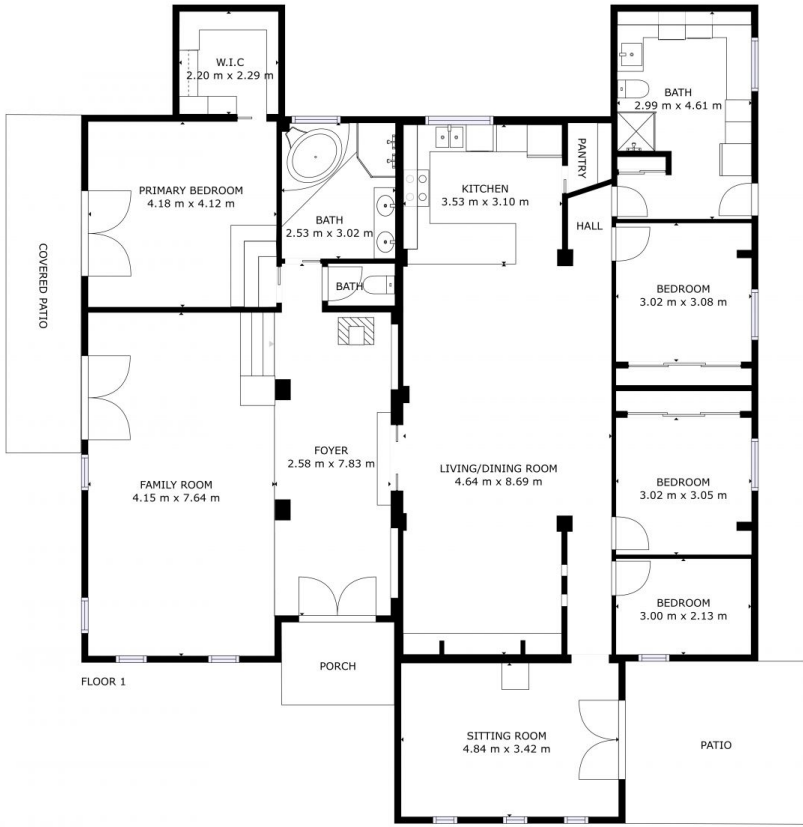

Light filled and large, the formal living area is a space for everyone to enjoy. Heated by a Scandia wood heater to take the chill of during winter months.

The master retreat offers a great separation of space with walk-in robe, glass sliding doors and outdoor access, as well as a nearby bathroom. With double shower, corner spa
