This lovely 1940's property has retained most of its original character and charm including the original floor plan, high ceilings, picture rails, ceiling roses and solid timber features throughout. If you appreciate older style homes and don't mind a bit of work to bring it back to its former glory or give it a modern makeover, then this property truly has great potential. A building report has been completed just prior to the property being listed and is available to all prospective buyers.

A level covered entry welcomes you and once inside, a wide hallway runs the length of the house ending in a nice sitting area overlooking the backyard. To the right is the formal living room and dine-in kitchen kept nice and warm with wood heating. There are 3 large bedrooms including a lovely old fireplace in the master, a neat and tidy bathroom, separate toilet, and laundry complete the inside of the
