

11 Quarry Street New Norfolk TAS

3 2 3

Number 11 Quarry street, set in the beautiful and historic township of New Norfolk, showcases a spellbinding fusion of twentieth and twenty first century architectural features. Built in 1910, the home has in recent years undergone a stylish and thoughtful refurbishment to incorporate a new kitchen, two updated bathrooms and a neutral, contemporary colour palette.

Entering the home via a decorative covered porch, you are greeted by a wide hallway that leads through in to the central living zone for the home. Bathed in copious amounts of natural light, this area includes a massive sunken lounge room with feature triptych windows. The adjoining fab new kitchen displays a black and white colour scheme, plenty of storage, chic subway tiles, pendant lighting, a six burner Smeg gas stove and Miele dishwasher. A family dining room provides access through
